Greetings to all of you in the name of our Savior, Jesus!
Believe it or not, February is already here. We can't believe that January flew by so quickly!

Earlier this month while on a business trip to California, Chris had the opportunity to meet with Eric and Lisa Kjeldgaard, Agape Children's Ministry's newest missionary family. The Kjeldgaard's will be joining our family in Kenya in late 2011 and will spend around a year serving with us in Kisumu. Upon returning from

Two of the hundreds of boys who still live on the streets of Kisumu, Kenya.

Kenya, the Kjeldgaards will be working full-time on Agape's staff in the United States. The Kjeldgaards have eight kids between the ages of 2 and 16 and will be sharing our compound with us in Kenya. Needless to say, I'm not sure Kisumu is ready to handle our four kids combined with their eight kids; it should be interesting!

Tammy visiting with some of the girls who are detained in the Remand Center (juvenile hall). Kids are often put here when they have no home to go to or family members to take them in.

As we shared last month, August is our target date for packing up and moving to Kenya to begin our work as missionaries with Agape Children's Ministry; it's hard to believe that we'll be moving in around six months! We hope to put our house on the market later this month; please pray that our house sells quickly! We praise the Lord for a great month of December where a number of you sent in some very generous one-time gifts. We have also seen an increase in ongoing monthly support and estimate that the Lord has provided about 60% of the monthly support that we need to meet our budget. Praise the Lord for His provision!

Next month, Chris will be preaching and speaking about Agape at Hocutt Baptist in Clayton, North Carolina. Many thanks to Pastor Steve Roy for allowing Chris to fill the pulpit while he is overseas on a short-term mission trip in Kenya. Please continue to pray that God will open up similar opportunities where we can share with others about Agape Children's Ministry and our calling to the mission field in Africa.

Thanks to all of you for your continued prayers and financial support. We are humbled by your commitment and sacrifice.

God Bless,

Chris, Tammy, Sutton, Conner, Seth, and Lyla Page
