

The Agape Pages

Greetings to all of you in the name of our Savior, Jesus! The month of March marked a big milestone for our family as we continue in our journey to Kenya. One year ago, we made the decision to go into full-time mission work with Agape Children's Ministry; it's amazing how fast time flies. For those of you that have been receiving our newsletters since the beginning, you know that we've spent the past year "getting the word out" about God's calling in our lives. A big thank you to all of you who have been in prayer for our family! We couldn't be where we are without your prayers!

One big item from this past month is that we finally got our house on the market, so please be in prayer that the Lord provides a buyer for our house. Selling our house will be a big relief! We've also begun taking care of some of the more mundane, but critical tasks associated with moving overseas: reserving plane tickets, getting immunizations (sorry kids!), getting the kids' passports, investigating international health insurance...the list could go on!

Another highlight from March was Chris's opportunity to speak at Southside Church, our home church in Clayton, North Carolina. Jim Harmeling, our pastor, was out of town, and Chris was asked to fill the pulpit in his absence. Chris shared with Southside about Agape Children's Ministry and their mission to reach children at risk for Jesus. Many thanks to Jim for allowing Chris this opportunity!

In April, Chris and Tammy are traveling to California for a few days to spend time with a number of Agape's missionaries, staff, and board members. We are really looking forward to seeing Blake and Esther Gibbs, who we haven't seen since our visit to Kenya in January 2010. Please be in prayer for our safety while traveling and that the Lord will bless our time together with the Agape team.

We are excited to report that we are up to 86% of our committed monthly budget; the Lord's provision is incredible! I can't thank each of you enough for your continued prayer and support. Your generosity and sacrifice are helping to make our work with Agape possible. We are praying for a few more monthly supporters, so as the Lord leads, please consider partnering with us through the provision of monthly financial support. Thank you!

God Bless,

Chris, Tammy, Sutton, Conner, Seth, and Lyla Page
